

---

In this course, students will continue to refine their comprehension and academic vocabulary skills through the reading of more extensive texts. Students will write essays that demonstrate their understanding of the writing process, including editing their work to reflect academic style, grammar, mechanics, and vocabulary. The course will provide an introduction to academic conventions in the use of outside sources. Students will continue to develop skills that will contribute to their future success in higher education.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of EAP 105 (with a grade of a "C") Please note the minimum passing grade of EAP 115 is a "C".

This course will provide students with the knowledge and skills to:

1. Develop strategies to read academic texts efficiently and effectively.
2. Locate and collect information from academic texts to complete assignments.
3. Distinguish important features of academic texts.
4. Infer information from texts.
5. Infer and explain the meaning of academic vocabulary in the readings.
- 6.

11. Illustrate revision skills for writing assignments.
12. Recognize and produce academic integrity to all coursework.

---

Faculty will generally respond to all student communication within 24-