

Candidate has received approval from the Human Subjects Review Committee to move forward with sponsored research.

Recommended outcomes for successful completion of HEL 9001:

Candidate has collected data.

Candidate has maintained regular communication with the advisor.

Attended scheduled chats.

Candidate has analyzed data.

Candidate has completed writing for Chapter 4 (and 5, if required per format of project).

Candidate has revised and edited full written project.

Candidate has successfully presented final results to full committee.

Candidate has submitted project to ProQuest.

Candidate has applied for graduation.

DOCTOR OF EDUCATION/COLLEGE OF EDUCATION ATTENDANCE POLICY:

The Doctor of Education/College of Education attendance policy is in addition to the Wilmington University attendance policy.

Doctor of Education Policy/ College of Education:

In the Doctor of Education program, faculty must approve all requests for exceptions to the College policy. Faculty must be contacted prior to class in all cases except valid emergencies. Failure to obtain approval for exceptions may result in lowering the final passing grade or assigning a FA (failure due to absence).

Course Policy:

Unexcused absences, other than for bona fide emergencies, will result in a one-letter final grade reduction for each such absence.

College of Education

Professional Partners

Creating Environments for Learning

Syllabus is sole property of Wilmington University