College of Health Professions and Natural Sciences Attendance Policy:

Because class sessions are highly interactive, any student's absence diminishes the quality of learning for everyone. Students are expected to attend all in-class sessions and to log on and participate in all online sessions as the course format requires. Failure to do so may be considered an unexcused absence. Be apprised that faculty have the ability to monitor your participation in the course. Please note that your weekly attendance is electronically tracked and is a criterion for your final course grade. Communication with your course faculty is essential.

College of Health Professions and Natural Sciences Late Assignment Process:

Late assignment submissions will not be accepted unless prior to the deadline and approved by the instructor.
