Academic Integrity

Students are expected to comport themselves with integrity and academic honesty with all activities and work related to this class both in and outside of the learning environment. Please refer to the Academic Integrity Policy on the Wilmington University website.

Academic Complaints/Grade Appeals

Any complaints about legitimate concerns about an interim or final grade should be first communicated to me in writing. Students are expected to present tangible evidence to support the basis for their complaint. If the matter is unresolved, students are to move the formal written complaint up to the Department Chair Person. Please review the Academic Complaint policy on the Wilmington University website.
