Developmental Self-Analysis Paper

Assignment: As school counselors we need to be able to reflect on our own development and address any issues that may have affected our own development. After choosing a theory/theorist, you will write a paper about your own development from pre-school (as far back as you can remember) to present-age. This paper must be developmentally theory-based and cover these three areas of development: physical, cognitive, social/emotional. You will discuss life, family, and school events that shaped your development contributing to who you are as a person today. APA format is required. Paper must include a title page, abstract page, 7-9 pages of content (including appropriate headings, headers, and page numbers) and a reference page. This assignment is considered the Structured External Assignment (SEA) for this course and requires submission in Task Stream.
