

C.2.l. legal and ethical considerations specific to clinical mental health counseling

A-2 Be knowledgeable about the legal standards of the State of Delaware that pertain to the practice of clinical mental health counseling including technology-related standards. (F.1.g, F.1.i, F.1.j, F.5.e, C.2.i, C.2.k, C.2.l)

F.1.g. professional counseling credentialing, including certification, licensure, and accreditation practices and standards, and the effects of public policy on these issues

F.1.i. ethical standards of professional counseling organizations and credentialing bodies, and applications of ethical and legal considerations in professional counseling

F.5.e. the impact of technology on the counseling process

C.2.i. legislation and government policy relevant to clinical mental health counseling

C.2.k. professional organizations, preparation standards, and credentials relevant to the practice of clinical mental health counseling

C.2.l. legal and ethical considerations specific to mental health counseling

Skill Learning Outcomes: The student will:

A-3 Demonstrate the ability to apply and adhere to ethical and legal standards in clinical mental health counseling including interfacing with the legal system regarding court-referred clients. (F.1.i, C.2.l, C.3.c)

F.1.i. ethical standards of professional counseling organizations and credentialing bodies, and applications of ethical and legal considerations in professional counseling

C.2.l. legal and ethical considerations specific to clinical mental health counseling

C.3.c. strategies for interfacing with the legal system regarding court-referred clients

GOAL B:

Understand the process of professional credentialing, including certification, licensure, and accreditation practices and standards, and the effects of public policy on these issues and understand the role of professional counseling organizations, including membership benefits, activities, services to members, and current issues. (CACREP STANDARD

B-1 Be familiar with the LPCMH (or respective professional license) License Law and Regulations adopted by the state in which the student intends to apply for professional license. (F.1.g, F.1.i, C.2.i, C.2.l)

F.1.g. professional counseling credentialing, including certification, licensure, and accreditation practices and standards, and the effects of public policy on these issues

F.1.i. ethical standards of professional counseling organizations and credentialing bodies, and applications of ethical and legal considerations in professional counseling

C.2.i. legislation and government policy relevant to clinical mental health counseling

C.2.l. legal and ethical considerations specific to clinical mental health counseling

B-2 Be knowledgeable about how one becomes a National Certified Counselor and a Licensed Professional Counselor of Mental Health (LPCMH) or respective professional license in the state in which the student intends to apply for professional license. (F.1.f, F.1.g, F.1.i, C.2.k, C.2.l)

F.1.f. professional counseling organizations, including membership benefits, activities, services to members, and current issues

F.1.g. professional counseling credentialing, including certification, licensure, and accreditation practices and standards, and the effects of public policy on these issues

F.1.i. ethical standards of professional counseling organizations and credentialing bodies, and applications of ethical and legal considerations in professional counseling

C.2.k. professional organizations, preparation standards, and credentials relevant to the practice of clinical mental health counseling

C.2.l. legal and ethical considerations specific to clinical mental health counseling

B-3 Be knowledgeable about public policy that affects the counseling profession (F.1.f, F.1.g, C.2.i, C.2.l)

F.1.f. professional counseling organizations, including membership benefits, activities, services to members, and current issues

F.1.g. professional counseling credentialing, including certification, licensure, and accreditation practices and standards, and the effects of public policy on these issues

C.2.i. legislation and government policy relevant to clinical mental health counseling

C.2.l. legal and ethical considerations specific to clinical mental health counseling

B-4 Be knowledgeable about the role of professional counseling organizations, including membership benefits, activities, services to

