WILMINGTON UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF EDUCATION & LIBERAL ARTS BASIC COURSE INFORMATION

This course introduces students to a brief and relevant history of teaching English language with emphasis placed on current, effective approaches and issues. Students will examples and drawbacks of a variety of approaches, while also considering the role of concepts such as agency, interaction, and identity. The course will also explore contexts of learning that take into account age, proficiency, culture, and social aspe

CSS)URSE NUMBER	TEL 6110
COURSE TITLE	Foundation of TESOL Methods
CREDITS	3
PREREQUISITE	None

WILMINGTON UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF EDUCATION & LIBERAL ARTS BASIC COURSE INFORMATION