COURSE TIME BREAKDOWN

40 Hours of Structured LuEnglish. The focus will be primarily on three major domains of linguistics, namely syntax, and pragmatics. Students will learn about oral communication and the sound system of English (phonology). They will also examine the major views of grammar and language structure (syntax), as well as language use in context (pragmatics). This course will focus on how these three domains impact English language teaching and learning. Students will complete a structured external assignment as part of the course.
