COURSE DESCRIPTION

The culminating capstone for the MS TESOL program will allow students to demonstrate their knowledge of the key theories and strategies of TESOL that they have studied throughout the program. Students will complete assignments throughout the course leading to a final paper with a literature review, an in-depth project proposal, and a reflection. Through the course and its assignments, students will demonstrate their capability in TESOL research, theory, practice, and reflection. Students may complete a field experience and a structured external assignment for the course.
